  - 5.2. Cllr Nick Bennett (ESCC)
6. Correspondence:
  - 6.1 From Wealden District Council: It has been recommended that all towns and parishes allocate an area for flowers and tributes in the event of the death of the Sovereign and Duke of Edinburgh. Please ensure that the designated area of your condolence book and/or area for tributes is visible on the homepage of your website. If you decide not to allocate an area, please ensure your homepage has a clear link to www.wealden.gov.uk for district arrangements and to www.royal.uk for national arrangements.
  - 6.2 From Wealden District Council: This year we are running another collective switch to help local residents save money on their gas and electricity bills. Same as last year the big switch is internet only except we are running a series of events to help those without internet get registered. To participate residents just need to come along to one of our events with a recent energy bill or annual statement if on a prepayment meter. All residents signing up at our events receive a free LED bulb.
